

Report of EMBLAZORS' 2017

On 3rd April 2017, The Department of Commerce, Aryabhata college organized its annual fest, 'Emblazors'. As the name suggests, the event truly illuminated the college by massive participation of students from all courses and took celebrations to the next level this year. The fest hosted events like foodzilla, biz quiz, Game of thrones quiz, the chase and the thrilling mystery room.

The foodzilla which was a food eating competition added to the fun quotient of the fest and had some mouthwatering dishes . The game of thrones quiz was based on a popular television show series saw a huge participation from students from different colleges of Delhi university. The chase was an event full of fun and to bring something new to the college students. The event was held in Aryabhata College. The main theme of the event was to provide the participants with an enriching experience, by participating in a live auction while having fun. The most intriguing and thrilling competition was "the mystery rooms" where teams proceeded on the basis of clues at different stages. The event was followed by felicitation of winners by Dr. Manoj Sinha, Principal, Aryabhata college.

This unforgettable event was organised by Vanijya, the commerce society of the college and was an outcome of hardwork of student volunteers. The sponsors of the event included Brand-o-mania, oriflame, lenskart among others. The fest created a cheerful environment in the college and marked a new beginning in itself.