

Nibs & Brushes Society

- The Creative Writing and Arts Society
(Society Report 2020-2021)

Convener: Mr. Binoy Bhushan Agarwal

Nibs & Brushes, the arts society had an unusual year, stymied as it felt, due to the pandemic. But like all arts, it managed to capture its ethos even in its brevity. While the society missed out on its collective projects like in the past which would be palpable in the frenzy that the team members carried with itself in the physical environs of the College and which echoed through the Corridors and across Halls and the Classrooms, its artist members continued to express themselves through their arts. Though the usual decking up of college during festivals was sorely missed, the artist members continued to meet on the virtual world where they held poetry and storytelling sessions to give shape to the new kind of emotions that they experienced in and around themselves in the wake of the pandemic and the consequent lockdown and virtual classroom experiences et al. As the painter-members continued to paint within the confines of the home, the wordsmiths continued to forge in the imaginative and literary spaces like true wordsmiths.
