Department of Commerce
(Orientation session report November 2, 2022)

The orientation session for the students of Department of Commerce (B. Com. (Hons.) and B.Com.) was held on 02 November, 2022. B. Com. (Hons.) and B. Com., being the one of the most popular course witnessed students with high enthusiasm. The session was started with the welcome address delivered by Prof. J. K. Singh, Teacher in Charge, Department of Commerce. He appraised students with the College's legacy and modalities of the system. Sir also explained the prominence of NEP (New Education Policy) to the students and introduced all faculty members of Commerce department. Thereafter, students were welcomed by Prof. Manoj Sinha, Principal, Aryabhatta College who congratulate them for choosing this college and course. He enlightened them about the college academics and extra- curricular activities. He emphasized on the teaching learning process and wishes good luck for their future journey. All the faculty members interacted with students at length and duly answer their queries. Then, various society/cells conveners along with students made presentations and apprise them about their work. The session was followed by refreshment to the students and faculty members.
