The Economics Department Society- "Mind Over Matter" organised a seminar on the topic. It was conducted by Ms. Yuvika Singhal who is an economist at QuantEco Research, which is "an independent research firm offering nuanced insights on Indian economy covering macros and financial markets". She is well versed in her knowledge regarding macro-economic factors which affect the Indian Economy. She spoke on the Union Budget, explaining what steps were taken, how they were taken and the rationale behind them. She spoke for roughly 1.5 hrs and in the end took up some doubts.

The seminar provided an insight into the budget formation process and explained the various nuances which come into play while making a budget at the union level.
