

उपस्थिति सूचना/ATTENDANCE NOTICE

(Strict Compliance of Attendance as per University of Delhi Ordinance)

All students are hereby strictly informed that attendance in classes is compulsory in accordance with the Ordinances, Rules and Regulations of the University of Delhi. As per University norms, a minimum of 66.67% attendance in each paper (Theory/Practical/Tutorial, wherever applicable) is mandatory for eligibility to appear in the upcoming Semester/University Examinations.

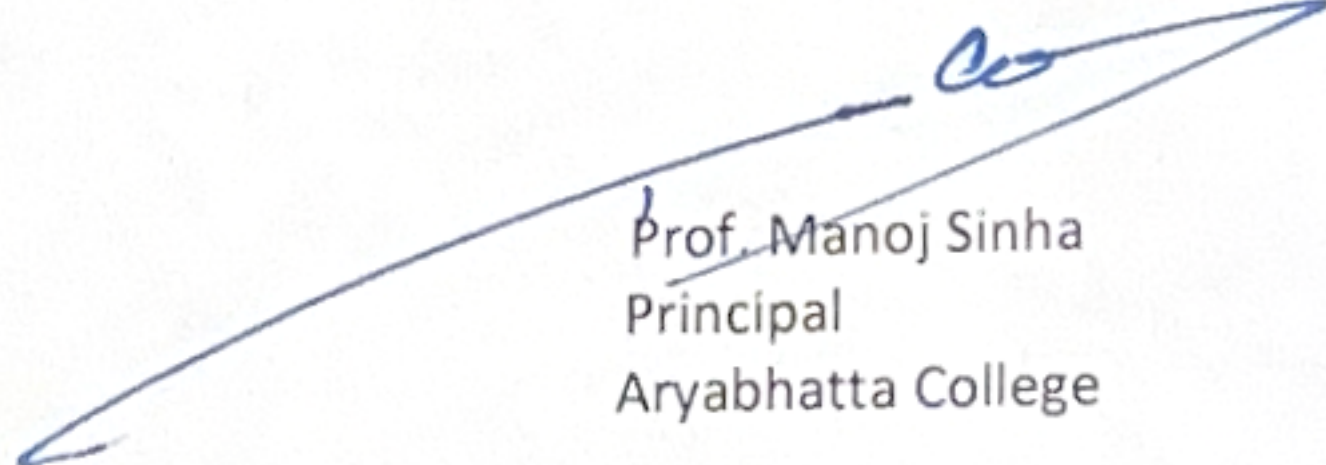

Students failing to fulfill the prescribed attendance requirement shall:

- Be detained and not permitted to appear in the examinations.
- Not be granted any relaxation under any circumstances, except as explicitly provided under University rules.
- Have no claim, representation, or appeal against detention due to shortage of attendance.

Students are solely responsible for ensuring regular attendance. Ignorance of rules, late admission, personal reasons, or verbal assurances shall not be accepted as grounds for consideration. The attendance recorded and maintained by the College shall be final, binding, and non-negotiable.

All students are directed to take this notice very seriously and ensure strict compliance. Non-adherence will invite severe academic consequences.
