NOTICE

In the past few days, many instances of violence and unlawful gathering of students and outsiders have been noticed in the college premises. As a result, the teaching - learning process and the normal functioning of the administration has been adversely affected. If such a situation persists, the college students' council election may be cancelled in the larger interest of maintaining peace, discipline, and smooth functioning of the institution.

All students are hereby advised to adhere to Lyngdoh committee recommendations and directives of honourable High court regarding student union election and refrain from any activity that disrupts the academic environment of the institution.
