

Department of English Aryabhata College

ORIENTATION DAY: A Report

The Orientation Programme for Academic Year 2022-23 was held on 02.11.2022 as per the schedule circulated in advance. The English Hons students were addressed in Room No. 13 led by the Teacher-In-Charge, Binoy Bhushan Agarwal and the department faculty members. The BA (Prog.) students with English as Major were ably guided under the supervision of Dr. Rajesh Kumar Dwivedi, also the Admissions-In-Charge who was later joined by the rest of the English faculty members.

The students were introduced to the NEP framework as this was the first time when the NEP was rolled out in the Delhi University. The students were patiently guided through the NEP framework, papers offered under Core, SEC, VAC & GE papers. Prof. B Mangalam helped students understand the intricacies of the NEP. Those faculty members who had been allotted the first year class also interacted with them and spoke on the papers he/she would be teaching them and offered necessary guidance in this regard.

As part of familiarizing them to College, the faculty members also apprised them of the No Ragging Policy, attendance rules, and the various societies that students could choose from. Dr. Kamayani Kumar, also the Nodal Officer & Convener of Scholarship and Fee Concession Committee informed the students about the various scholarships and financial support facilities available. The student-faculty interaction was followed up by QnA. Later, student representatives from various societies and cells also interacted with them to explain and encourage them to be part of ECA activities.

The Principal and his team including the College administration also interacted with the Freshers in their effort to make them feel at home.

The programme ended with senior students taking over for ice-breaking sessions.

ORIENTATION PROGRAMME –Department of English, Batch '22

ORIENTATION

2022

